Mayor Roach opened the meeting to Council:

Councilman DiDomenico presented the Police Department for September including 2,146 total calls of service.

Councilwoman Hess announced that all public events have been canceled due to COVID. Library personnel have been working for when the Library may open again. Currently, curbside pickup is available by appointment only. Mayor added that a new Wi-Fi will be installed soon.

Councilman Jackson reported that Code Enforcement will resume hours on Saturday.

Councilman Strippoli presented the September report from Public Works with total collection 781 tons of trash and 106 tons of recycling. No injuries were reported. The Sewer Department report included 168 sewer calls.

Councilwoman Sinon informed the residents Caregiver Conference will be held virtually. More information is available on the Camden County website to sign up for these Zoom events. The Board of Health is recommending the flu shots this year. Free shots will be given at the County Complex on October 22, 23, and 24. Finally, she presented tips for wearing masks.

Business Administrator provided the 2020 Census update which officially ends October 15. Currently, Lindenwold is at 56.7%. She thanked the Governing Body for their trust and support for this endeavor. She also informed the residents about the 2020 Best Practices Checklist which is due on November 3.

Mayor Roach presented the Coronavirus update with deaths at 11 and 588 cases. There have been 31 new cases since the last meeting. He encourages all residents to wear a mask and follow the rules. He read a prepared statement regarding Halloween which will be posted on the Lindenwold website.

Mayor Roach opened the meeting to the Public.

Diane Veteri, resident, asked if buses are still allowed to park on the street. Mayor Roach advised resident to contact Code Enforcement.

Trevor Shaw, resident, stated that he had several questions which he started by questioning the agenda format which is the same format that the Borough has been using. Then he asked for the completion date for the Gibbsboro Road traffic light project which has been extended due to equipment delays. He asked about the completion date for the Arborwood Redevelopment and renderings which has been delayed due to the COVID shutdown. Next he questioned the Linden Town repaving project which the engineers had to revise due to unexpected issues that were encountered as well as a delay in funding from the State of New Jersey. He also questioned why important events are not posted similar to the Census signs. Councilwoman Hess advised that events mentioned by resident were sponsored by outside organizations. Finally, he questioned if a diverse town of Lindenwold would be better served with an ADA compliant library and bilingual staff. Mayor thanked the resident for his questions.

There being no one else desiring the floor, the Mayor closed the meeting to the public.

Motion was made by Councilman Strippoli, second by Councilwoman Hess that the meeting be adjourned. Voice vote was unanimous in the affirmative. Motion carried.
