WHEREAS, the Borough of Lindenwold, 15 North White Horse Pike, Lindenwold, New Jersey, and the Lindenwold Board of Education, 801 Egg Harbor Road, Lindenwold, New Jersey, recognize that it is imperative to search for efficient means to reduce spending through creative and innovative ideas and programs which benefit their community, and

WHEREAS, the "Uniform Shared Services and Consolidation Act", N.J.S.A 40A:65-1 et seq. (the "Act"), authorizes local units of the State of New Jersey to enter into an agreement with any other local unit or units to provide or receive any service that each local unit participating in the agreement is empowered to provide or receive in its own jurisdiction, and

WHEREAS, the respective parties have previously joined together authorizing an Interlocal Agreement for Law Enforcement Officers and Class III Special Law Enforcement Officer be assigned to the Lindenwold School District and for the upkeep of the Lindenwold Park.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor and Borough Council of the Borough of Lindenwold that the Mayor and Borough Clerk are hereby authorized to execute the agreement with the Board of Education for the assignment of Law Enforcement Officers and Class III Special Law Enforcement Officer and the upkeep of the Lindenwold Park.

Matthew Magill of Remington and Vernick presented the Engineer's Report with the update to the Reconstruction of Cooper Avenue and the Traffic Signal Analysis.

Mayor Roach opened the meeting to Council.

Councilman DiDomenico presented the Police Department Report for the month of April that included 2,491 total calls for service. Mayor Roach added that the office for the Fire Department has moved.

Councilwoman Hess presented the March report for Public Works including 730 tons of trash collected and 85 tons for recycling. There were no accidents and one injury. For the Sewer Department, the report included 123 service calls. She informed the residents that on April 29 for Arbor Day, the Borough and High School students planted two trees at Public Works. The students did a great job and she thanked Public Works for all their assistance.

President Randolph-Sharpe thanked the Business Administrator for all her hard work in preparing the budget. Next, she presented the April reports for the Construction and Code Office including permits, inspections and violations. She informed the public that the office is extremely busy this time of year and in the process of filling a vacancy. She is hoping the new program to digitize the Construction Office will help improve the various functions. She has accepted to join the Youth Committee for Camden County and looks forward to participating in the program.

Councilman Lenkowski announced the successful College Signing Day. High School held the first spring concert since COVID. Graduation is Friday, June 17. The School Board is instituting an anonymous reporting system to help with incidents at the High School. He informed any applicant wishing to use the Borough Park or fields to provide all the information necessary for the Committee.

Councilwoman Patton announced the Library is holding their book sale. On May 28, there will be a community yard sale. The Memorial Day Observance will be on Monday, May 30 at 9:00am at the Lindenwold Park.

Councilwoman Sinon announced the events sponsored by Camden County for seniors including golf lessons, sessions for stress for Care Givers, program for balance, and a picnic at Lakeland on May 25. Next, she presented the update on COVID with nine new cases in Lindenwold. The CDC has reported that 58 percent of the population has been affected. She also announced a warning for one of the rapid tests that has not been approved by the FDA.

Mayor Roach added that he is proud of the all efforts regarding Redevelopment, which shows in the two-cent decrease in taxes.

Councilman DiDomenico added that the police will be at the event on Saturday at Drifaway.

Mayor Roach reviewed the new public speaking policy.

Mayor Roach opened the meeting to the public.

Mrs. Porter, resident, informed Council of no improvements regarding her complaints at the Pines. She appreciated President Randolph Sharpe walking the grounds with her. She continued to talk about the trash, snakes and bugs on the property.

Donald Anderson, resident, questioned why the Borough cannot clean up the mess and address with the owner.

Carol Shook, resident, informed Council of the problems including drug activity, unsupervised children, and loud music behind the Belmont Apartments with the debris ending up on her property. In addition, she wants the Borough to address the speeding on Brighton Avenue.

Diane Veteri, resident, questioned the Council activities and salaries with the meetings being reduced to once per month. She questioned Arbor Day since there is no Environmental Committee. Her last question is regarding Ordinance 2019-215.

Rolando Otero, resident, requested information on the vacant lot.

Trevor Shaw, resident, thanked Mayor Roach for cleanup locations, the Police Department and Public Works for their support. He commented on the improvement of the concession stand at Carlton Rouh field. He asked questions about the website and the use for News Subscription for events and Welcome Tab, Senior Building, and Dog Park. He also informed Council of a group breaking into cars again and inquiring about improvements for White Horse Pike.

Mayor Roach re-opened the meeting to Council.

Mayor Roach informed Ms. Shook that he has provided the information to the Police Department about her complaints. Council is reviewing the possibility to rent the Community Center while addressing the issues of liability and damages. President Randolph-Sharpe addressed the issue of duties for Council in addition to the monthly meeting. Regarding the Pines, Code Enforcement has issued violations with a period for the owner to address. She will be meeting with Management. The Borough uses the property channels to address the complaints. Part of the issue is the property behind this location belongs to N.J. Transit who is responsible for maintaining. She responded to the question for the Welcome tab, which is still in the process. However, the new software for the Construction Office has become the priority. She will look into the distribution of events. The Business Administrator addressed the location of the dog park is still for Scott Ave. She informed the resident that a traffic analysis was completed for United States Avenue and White Horse Pike and will be submitted to the state. The Mayor added that Lindenwold has been participating with the state in the study for the past five years for improvements on the White Horse Pike.

Mayor Roach responded to the resident regarding the vacant property and the procedure involved. Once completed, a notice will be sent.

Councilwoman Hess responded to the resident that there is still a Committee for Environmental to complete projects in town.

Motion was made by President Randolph-Sharpe, second by Councilwoman Hess that the meeting be adjourned. Voice vote was unanimous in the affirmative. Motion carried.
